

The Torah describes Yehovah's marriage covenant to his bride Israel: Elohim (God) said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the children of Israel: 'Yehovah, Elohim of your fathers, the Elohim of Abraham, the Elohim of Isaac, and the Elohim of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is My name forever, and this is My memorial to all generations.'" (Ex 3:10-15)

"And Moses went up to Elohim, and Yehovah called to him from the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel: 'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to Myself. Now therefore, if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, then you shall be a special treasure to Me above all people; for all the earth is Mine. And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' These are the words you shall speak to the children of Israel." So Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before them all these words which Yehovah commanded him. Then all the people answered together and said,

"All that Yehovah has spoken we will do!" (Ex 19:8)

"So Moses brought back the words of the people to Yehovah." (Ex 19:3-8) "Behold, I send an Angel before you to keep you in the way and to bring you into the place which I have prepared. Beware of him and obey his voice; do not provoke him, for he will not pardon your transgressions; for My name is in him. But if you indeed obey his voice and do all that I speak, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries." (Ex 23:20-22)

"So you shall serve Yehovah your Elohim, and he will bless your bread and your water. And I will take sickness away from the midst of you. No one shall suffer miscarriage or be barren in your land; I will fulfill the number of your days. "I will send My fear before you, cause confusion among all the people to whom you come, and will make all your enemies turn their backs to you." (Ex 23:25-28)

"Moses came and told the people all the words of Yehovah and all the judgments. And all the people answered with one voice and said,

'All the words which Yehovah has said we will do.' (Ex 24:3)

"And Moses wrote all the words of Yehovah. And he rose early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and twelve pillars according to the twelve tribes of Israel. Then he sent young men of the children of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen to Yehovah. And Moses took half the blood and put it in basins, and half the blood he sprinkled on the altar. (Ex 24:4-8)

"Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it in the hearing of the people. And they said,

"All that Yehovah has said we will do, and be obedient!" (Ex 24:7)

"Moses took the blood, sprinkled it on the people, and said, "This is the blood of the covenant which Yehovah has made with you according to all these words." (Ex 24:3-8) "Then it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were thunderings and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain; and the sound of the trumpet was very loud, so that all the people who were in the camp trembled." (Exodus 19:16) "That you should enter into covenant with Yehovah your Elohim, and into his oath, which Yehovah your Elohim makes with you this day. . . Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath: But with him that stands here this day before Yehovah our Elohim and also with him that is not here with us this day." (Dt 29:12,14,15)
